

ELISABETH LUKAS

Training in original logotherapy
according to Viktor E. Frankl

SEMESTER V

Logotherapy as medical ministry 2

CONTENTS

- 1 Schizophrenia
- 2 Frankl's description of schizophrenic clinical presentations
- 3 Supportive psychotherapy in case of schizophrenia
- 4 A comparison of endogenous depression and schizophrenia
- 5 The borderline syndrome
- 6 Therapeutic options
- 7 Concluding considerations
- 8 Part 3: Severe strokes of fate (suffering/ guilt/ death)
- 9 Frankl's "tragic triad"
- 10 Frustration produces aggression
- 11 Further thoughts on the phenomenon of human aggression
- 12 Education to foster and maintain peace
- 13 Textual analysis of Frankl's "methaclinic pathodicy"
- 14 Practical help during challenging times
- 15 Comparison of two problem groups
- 16 Frankl's time flow model
- 17 Philosophical definitions

- 18 Optimism of the past
- 19 Conclusions for humanity
- 20 Practical significance of the "optimism of the past"
- 21 Existential guilt
- 22 When patients suffer from guilt
- 23 Dealing with unjustified, irrational feelings of guilt
- 24 Dealing with justified feelings of guilt
- 25 Making amends on a human level
- 26 Mysterium iniquitatis (mystery of the sin)
- 27 Collective guilt
- 28 Shame
- 29 Last aid
- 30 The meaning of death
- 31 Looking back
- 32 The present (last) tasks
- 33 When death is imminent
- 34 Outlook
- 35 A psycho-physical study by V.E. Frankl and Otto Potzl
- 36 On the topic of suicide
- 37 Medical lifespan reduction and prolongation
- 38 Euthanasia and abortion

- 39 On the question of spiritual immortality
- 40 Perspectives about ultimate meaning
- 41 Coincidence and ultimate meaning
- 42 The "unconscious God" - suppressed religiosity
- 43 Existential analysis of the "homo religiosus"